

REPUBLICAN INDIAN COMMITTEE

Republican Indian Committee elects new National Chairman, Sam Malhotra, to lead PAC into 2012

For Immediate Release – June 5, 2011

Contact:

Jody Venkatesan

Political Director

jvenkatesan@comcast.net

(301) 651-1297

Washington, DC: The Republican Indian Committee (RIC) has elected a new National Chairman. In accordance with its Bylaws, the Board of Directors of the political action committee unanimously elected RIC-Maryland Chairman Sam Malhotra to succeed Dr. Armeane Choksi.

Dr. Armeane Choksi, RIC's first National Chairman, observed, "I have no doubt that Sam Malhotra will provide the leadership and vision that RIC needs. Sam shares my passion, and I can think of no better person to hand the reins to as my successor. I am glad that he will be leading RIC, as the Republicans look to re-take the White House in 2012."

Sam Malhotra is the CEO and Founder of Subsystem, Inc. Subsystem provides Professional Services in Information Technology, Engineering and Manufacturing, Information Security, and Enterprise Program Management support to the Federal Government.

Sam has been a long-time fundraiser and activist in Maryland politics, serving on the Finance Committees of many state and federal candidates. Sam has hosted fundraisers for several candidates over the years, including former Maryland Governor Robert L. Ehrlich, Jr. (R), leading RIC's efforts this past election cycle in Maryland.

After his election, Sam commented, "I am excited about the prospect of leading RIC, particularly as we head into a presidential election year. We have a great group of members, and I look forward to building upon the legacy left by Armeane. I thank him for his service, and I will strive to live up to the trust that the Board of Directors has placed in me by electing me Chairman."

RIC's President, Dilip Paliath, noted, "Sam brings a lot of experience and talent that will serve our growing organization well. He understands what it takes to be successful, and what it takes to win. He is the right person at the right time for the right job.”

The Republican Indian Committee is a political action committee organized under Section 527 of the I.R.S. Code, with state chapters and members in the District of Columbia, Florida, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, and Virginia. For more information, see www.ricpac.org.

Mr. Sam Malhotra

###